OVERVIEW

Surya has tried over a dozen cases before federal and state juries and argued multiple times before the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals. He has led investigations and government enforcement matters as a prosecutor, an in-house attorney, and in private practice. He distills the complexity of complex problems into clear recommendations for clients.

Surya leads investigations and litigation in a wide array of matters, including government enforcement actions, fraud and embezzlement, anticorruption, regulatory compliance, healthcare, and money laundering. He also investigates and leads criminal defense teams in white collar criminal matters, regulatory inquiries, and Attorney General enforcement matters. Surya's litigation and investigations experience includes civil and criminal matters involving the False Claims Act, the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, the Anti-Kickback Statute, the Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, the Bank Secrecy Act, and more. Surya has previously been recently recognized for his trial advocacy by Minnesota Lawyer, which named Surya and his former colleagues 2018 "Attorneys of the Year."

Surya leverages his experience as an Assistant U.S. Attorney and as an in-house counsel to predict clients' needs, assess risks, drive litigation and settlement strategies, and provide actionable counsel to both organizational and individual clients.
