OVERVIEW

Surya has tried over a dozen cases before federal and state juries, argued numerous times before the Eighth Circuit Court of Appeals, and represented clients at multiple arbitration hearings.

Surya relies on his blend of in-house and prosecutorial experience to anticipate clients' goals and distill the complexity of litigation and investigations into clear recommendations and strategies. He leads litigation and investigations teams in a wide variety of civil, criminal, and regulatory matters, including False Claims Act investigations and litigation, healthcare fraud matters, FCPA and anticorruption investigations, regulatory compliance investigations, and complex commercial litigation.

Surya is currently ranked in Chambers USA in the White-Collar Crime & Government Investigations practice area for Minnesota. He has previously been recognized for his trial advocacy by Minnesota Lawyer, which named Surya and his former colleagues 2018 "Attorneys of the Year." He was also recognized by Minnesota Lawyer as a Diversity and Inclusion Honoree in 2019. In 2023, he was appointed by Governor Tim Walz to serve as a member of Minnesota's Sentencing Guidelines Commission.
