

Award: Minnesota 500 Recognizes Larry Shapiro

Greene Espel is proud to announce that Minnesota 500 has recognized Larry Shapiro as one of “the most powerful business leaders in Minnesota.” With this honor, Larry joins an impressive group of leaders, across all industries, who have “changed their fields” and “stepped up, whether to fight racism or provide resources to those affected by the COVID-19 pandemic.” Larry is passionate about using his legal skills and experience to help others, and to create and sustain diversity, equity and inclusion. The Best Lawyers in America also recognized Larry as “Lawyer of the Year” in its 2021 edition.

About Greene Espel PLLP: Clients and legal-industry insiders alike recognize Greene Espel as one of the country’s leading boutique litigation firms. To provide clients with the best possible service, the firm threw out the traditional law-firm management model. Every client is a firm client. Every member attorney has an equal vote in firm decisions. The firm’s unique approach attracts and retains diverse, top-tier talent who are personally invested in clients’ successes and who regularly outpunch the biggest firms in the world at a fraction of the cost.
